

Bill Collins Memorial Arts Scholarship Recipients

The Scholarship in memory of artist Bill Collins is offered to a qualifying high school senior. Bill was a member and supporter of the Framingham Cultural Council, the Framingham Artist’s Guild, and a volunteer

The 2014 Framingham Cultural Council Arts Scholarship recipient was Sara Goulart, a senior at the Learning Center for the Deaf. A portrait sketch titled “Birdy” was part of her successful application for the scholarship as was her essay about her visit to the sister school for the deaf in China. Sara will be furthering her education at the National Technical Institute for the Deaf (NTID), a college of Rochester Institute of Technology.

Sara Goulart and her portrait sketch at the Cultural Council’s 2014 Annual Awards Reception

=====

The 2013 Framingham Cultural Council Arts Scholarship recipient was Kathlynn Sell, a Framingham High School senior. An original score Sonata Allegro for string quartet titled “Here and There” was part of her successful application for the scholarship. Kathlynn will attend Berklee College of Music majoring in music therapy.

Kathlynn Sell playing the Marimba at the Cultural Council’s 2013 Annual Awards Reception

=====

The 2012 Framingham Cultural Council Arts Scholarship recipient was Bradford Naugler, a senior at J.P. Keefe Regional Technical School. He was selected for this award based on his self portrait made using splatter paint and a collage drawing of himself as well as his demonstrated interest in the arts. His references described his love of making art, especially experimenting with various mediums resulting in something unique and creative. Bradford will be furthering his education at Becker College.

Bradford Naugler and his self-portrait collage